Letters To The Editor

To the Editor
Crawford Avalanche
Dear Editor:

So many people have asked us to write them; it would be possible to overlook some, so we thought this would be the best way to reach practically everyone. We left home the morning of Dec. 24th (10 below zero), went to Kalamazoo to spend Christmas with our sons, Arnold and Howard and families, this was enjoyable except that Howard's wife, Marge, was confined to bed with pneumonia.

Monday morning, Dec. 26th, we left Kalamazoo in a light rain, didn't expect to get very far for the weather forecast was that the rain would freeze, that was not the case. We drove 274 miles reaching Scottsburg, Ind. by evening. Proceeded the next day through Kentucky and into Tennessee. By noon we were about the middle of Tennessee, we stopped along the highway to eat our lunch. Lost all trace of snow here. There were quite a large grove of leafless trees, big trees, it looked as if the trees did have leaves there were so many starlings in them, the noise they made sounded like great water falls. I believe without exaggeration there were no less than 7,000 birds in the flock. We stopped in Fayetteville, Tenn. for the night. While carrying our luggage into the motel, just at dusk, I saw a huge flock of robins winging their way south.

The only real obstacle in way of travel thus far was Louisville, Ky. We just haven't found a way through that city without getting snarled up some. I tried to evade Louisville by going through Jeffersonville, Ind., only to find the latter city to be an augmentation of Louisville and only tended to complicate matters. I was reminded that to try and evade the charted route is comparable to ignore the charted route to eternity. Even though it may seem hard to follow, ultimately it is the only and right way, so on our return home next April we will follow the well marked Kentucky turnpike through Louisville.

December 28th we got as far as Yanketown, Fla. We could have gone on to Orlando but we stopped and took a horse and carriage ride along the Swannee River in Florida. Took a motel for the night. Stopped at had a short visit with Paul Foldhauser and wife and brother, Charlie, also Mr. and Mrs. John VonSee, whom some around Grayling know.

December 29th arrived at the Max Laage's (old residents of Grayling) at 11 a.m. Had lunch with them and then went out to locate a place to live and found a very nice apartment on a lake where there are plenty of aquatic birds.

January 5th. We went out today to do our laundry. Found a laundry that has no attendant, no detergent in the machine, I put a dime in and got nothing, not even my dime back. Made me wish I was back at Casson's.

The weather isn't hot by far, but there hasn't been a frost here yet. 40 degrees, has been the coldest and it gets up to near 70 degrees in the shade during the day. The sun has shown more or less every day, mostly more. This is better than shoveling snow for my money.

We wish you all well this New Year.

Celebrate Twenty-Fifth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sorenson were the guests of honor at a dinner held at the William LaGrow home Thursday evening, in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The affair was a pot-luck buffet, given by the Justis Club ladies and their husbands. Also present were members of the Sorenson family, Mrs. Carl Sorenson, Mr. and Mrs. William Cox and children, and Miss Judy Sorenson, making about thirty guests in all.

Mr. and Mrs. LaGrow attended the Sorensons when they were married twenty-five years ago. For the party last Thursday Mrs. Sorenson wore the dress in which she was married.

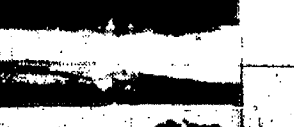

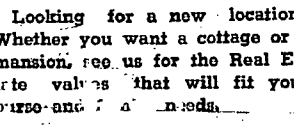

A money tree was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson, and several other gifts. Following the dinner, the anniversary cake which was furnished by the Sorenson children, was cut and served to the guests. Decorations of white wedding bells trimmed the dining room where the attractive buffet and dessert were spread before the guests. Cards had been planned following the meal, but reminiscences and visiting took their place. Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson are extended the best wishes of the community for many many more happy years together.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and thoughtfulness during the recent illness and death of our loved one, Oscar Charron. #### Olds Tells Board Water Important Resource

"Water is Michigan's most important resource," Nicholas V. Olds, assistant attorney general of the State of Michigan told the MUCC board of directors in Niles last month.

In speaking to the directors, Olds said that Michigan's critical problem in conservation is water and "we must assure justice for the resource and for all peoples of the state."

Olds commended MUCC for its active role in guaranteeing the public trust water rights and cited several examples wherein MUCC has played an extremely active role.

"No individual has the right to alter the bed or course of a stream or lake," Olds said. "To do so," he concluded, "is to deprive the other citizens of the state their natural rights to that stream and lake."

Olds also gave a round up of the court litigation concerning the Chicago water diversion from

Vote! . . .

Every election millions of Americans who possess right of franchise fail to exercise it. Apparently reason that one vote doesn't amount to anything. Well, if they can think at all, the last election should be a lesson to them to think again. The official returns show Mr. Kennedy's margin over Mr. Nixon was under 100 votes — out of a total which approached 70 million. The President-elect's edge was the smallest in relation to the total vote in all of our history. An especially dramatic example of the importance of a vote is provided by the newest state, Hawaii. At Mr. Nixon was thought to have taken the state a 141-vote majority. More recent tabulations give Senator Kennedy — by a 21-vote margin, out of under 185,000 cast! Whether or not a full vote would have changed the result is beside the point. The general election of 1960, which the stakes were never higher, should make any non-voter who could have gone to the polls thoroughly ashamed of himself.

Chapter . . .

Twenty-nine American medical students have entered the dark corners of three continents to study grass-roots medicine. Far from the great U. S. medical centers they will give first-hand combat to diseases not commonly seen in this country. Guided by physicians already practicing in remote areas, these students will to organize and maintain public health programs at the same time, gain valuable clinical experience under their proctors. They will be "good will ambassadors" in the true and full sense of the term. This marks the beginning of a new chapter in American medical education. It is administered by the Association of American Medical Colleges, and it is made possible by a $180,000 grant from Smith Kline and French Laboratories, Philadelphia pharmaceutical company. It is designed to run over a three-year term, and at time about 90 selected students, who will have completed at least three years of medical school, will receive financial grants to permit them to spend vacation periods studying in underdeveloped areas of their choice.

This represents "enlightened business activity" of a very high order. No product promotion is involved and no advertising in the normal sense of the word. The free world and the communist world are presently locked in a struggle for the friendship and leadership of the surging underdeveloped areas. Medical aid can be a mighty weapon in the relentless cold war.

President Eisenhower has said, "In today's world there are a few things of greater importance than introducing young Americans to the realities of international affairs and preparing them to exert world leadership through their various fields of competence." This medical program falls squarely within that framework.

The long-looked-for Golden Gloves tournament being held here this week came through with a good start on the first night, Tuesday. This is being sponsored by the Rube Babbitt Chapter of the Frank Walton League, working thru the Bay City Times. The second night of the tournament was just a continuation of the first night, but the fighting seemed to be much more vicious. The session was marked by several knock-outs.

After a couple of rousing winter sports weekends, everyone now is ready for the usual carnival time. The officers and directors met last Saturday evening and decided on February 12 and 13 as the carnival dates. Impartial judges will make the selection of a queen on the evening of Saturday, January 20th, at the winter park. All young ladies wishing to take part in the queen contest are requested to appear at the park, dressed in winter costumes, at 8 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson of Roscommon visited the Grant Thompson family the last of the week.

Grayling High won a double-barreled victory over West Branch last Friday night on the loser's floor. The scores were close enough, the Reserves copying a 23 to 25 decision while their big brothers won 27 to 21. Edward and Frederick Mason of Detroit spent the weekend here at their cottage on Lake Margrethe.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dawson are receiving cards from their son Devere, who is in Texas on his way to Florida.

Leonard Knibbs was home from C. S. T. C. Mt. Pleasant, over the weekend, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Knibbs. Roger Evans wasn't to be thwarted last Sunday when Toledo cancelled their snow train. His parents drove him to Detroit by auto and from there he came via the Detroit Special, spending the day at the Winter Sports park and visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Reuben S. Babbitt.

Mrs. Lillian Murphy of Detroit arrived Tuesday and was accompanied by her brother Maurice Gorman to Boyne City to visit her sister, Mrs. Floyd Schneider. Mr. and Mrs. Gorman and son Clayton and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hunt and daughter Jacquelyn spent Saturday night there.

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Keyport were hosts to the Saturday Bridge club and their gentlemen at a pot-luck dinner Friday evening. Following a sumptuous dinner four tables were filled for bridge, with Mrs. Roy Milnes and Mr. A. J. Joseph holding the high scores. The club voted to hold these dinners every third week during the winter. Mrs. Harry Connine and Carl Johnson were guests of the club.

Lewis Stillwagon of Detroit is spending some time in Lovells. The quarantine has been lifted from the Clyde Road home, Mrs. Rood having recovered from a siege of diphtheria.

The local office of the State Highway Department has been moved from over the Kroy building to quarters over the Grayling Restaurant.

Albert Madill of Frederic is building a new modern home on the banks of the Ausable River. The building is two story, of cement blocks with full basement, and will be equipped with bath and furnace.

Miss Yvonne Bradley gave a skating party at the Winter Sports Park Wednesday evening. Transportation to the park was furnished by Betty Parsons and J. H. Peterson. After skating a delightful lunch was served at the Bradley home.

Mr. Harold Hatfield entertained her Bunco club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Sorenson, Mrs. William Krasge and Mrs. Oscar Smith holding the high scores. The hostess served a delicious lunch. The club will meet next week with Mrs. Ernest Blissette.

The bean guessing contest at Connine's grocery was the topic of the town for a few days. People were trying to estimate the number of beans in the large glass container in all sorts of ways. The contest closed yesterday and Mrs. Mary Kasper came the closest to guessing the 6948 beans in the container with the figure 6800, for which she will receive a basket of groceries amounting to $2.50 worth. Guesses ran all the way from 200 to 1,000,000.

John Knecht has been spending some time on the Ausable river this week in a photo-

61 FORD

...the only car in its field beautifully built to go...

miles between lubrications

30,000 is the most famous number of the year. It's every '61 Ford owner's license to save. How can Ford do it? Conventional chassis lubrication fittings have been replaced with metal plugs that help protect each lubrication point against abrasive mud, dirt and dust. And then, for only about $4 and about 20 minutes your Ford is ready for another 30,000! This is just one of the many ways the '61 Ford is built to take care of itself. Your Ford Dealer can show you more.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

Lubricates itself—You'll normally go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications which cost only about $4.00 and take about 20 minutes because Ford has replaced conventional grease fittings with a sealed-in lubrication system.

Cleans its own oil—You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes because Ford's Full-Flow oil filter gives you filtration through fibers... trapping more dirt than any other type of filter.

Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves—automatically.

Guards its own muffler—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminumized to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing the body panels beneath the doors.

Takes care of its own finish—Just wash and clean Ford's new Diamond Luster Finish and it continues to glisten like new. It never needs waxing.

Only FORD is beautifully built to take care of itself

Movies Looking For Beautiful Girls
Beautiful girls—step forward! The movies are looking for you. In connection with the big new CinemaScope picture, "ESTHER AND THE KING," 20th Century-Fox is staging an international search for beauty which will present the over-all winner with a trip (escorted, and all expenses paid) to Hollywood. There the lucky girl will be interviewed by the studio casting department and photographed by Fox Movielet News, also, if she is a singer, she will receive a recording audition by 20th Fox Records. The winner of the Michigan regional eliminations will be eligible for the National Contest. Locally the Rialto Theatre is acting as the sponsor. Blonde, brunette, redhead—it doesn't matter which type the contestant may be. Twentieth Century-Fox is surveying the whole field of feminine good looks, just as King Ahasuerus did when he was seeking a Queen and found Esther. The contest is international in character as was the original and is open to ladies of all faiths, races and nationalities.

This newest search for beauty is very much like the one told of in the Bible, which was the first recorded contest of the kind. Ahasuerus reigned from India over a vast empire—about a hundred and seven-and-twenty provinces. His soldiers picked the fairest girls from all these provinces and took them to the King for him to make his choice. The big difference between that old-time contest and the one now starting is that the modern one is voluntary. The only qualifying conditions
